DIABLO MUNICIPAL ADVISORY COUNCIL
COMMUNICATION PROTOCOLS WITH CONTRA COSTA COUNTY
March 09, 2021

RE: CCC Communication Protocols Concerning Diablo Land Use, Planning and Zoning

I. Background

The Diablo Municipal Advisory Council (DMAC), established by the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors in the late 1990s, represents the Diablo community to the Contra Costa County Department of Conservation & Development in matters pertaining to planning and zoning. DMAC's authority is advisory and has no binding authority. Specifically, the County Board of Supervisors granted DMAC the following authority under CCC Resolution No. 2006/791, which was then extended at the December 16, 2008 CCC Board of Supervisors' Board Meeting:

II. MAC External Communication and Representation (from 2008 mtg):

MACs advise the Board of Supervisors on land use and planning matters affecting their communities of interest and may represent their communities before the Board of Supervisors, the Planning Commission and the Zoning Administrator on such issues as land use, planning, and zoning. MACs may also represent the community before the Local Agency Formation Commission on proposed boundary changes affecting the community.

MACs may advise the Board of Supervisors on services which are or may be provided to the community by Contra Costa County or other local government agencies. Such services include, but are not limited to, public health, safety, welfare, public works, and planning. MACs may also provide input and reports to the Board, County staff or any County hearing body on issues of concern to the community.

However, it is understood that the Board of Supervisors is the final decision-making authority with respect to issues concerning the community and that the Council shall serve solely in an advisory capacity.

In 2006, at the request of the County Board of Supervisors, DMAC's advisory work became the responsibility of the Diablo Community Services District (DCSD) Board. Separate meetings would be held, and all County communication concerning zoning and planning within Diablo would be through DMAC.

In 2002 the Diablo Historical Preservation Committee, (DHPC), a self-appointed volunteer subcommittee of the Diablo Property Owners' Association (DPOA), a self-appointed volunteer organization, filed a petition with the County to have certain homes in Diablo flagged as Historical. Furthermore, the DHPC asked that any land use permits requested by these properties be forwarded by the County to DHPC for review and comment. The following homes have been identified as historical (homes identified as torn down or substantially torn down are no-longer deemed historical):

Alameda Diablo:	1699, 1700, 1734 (torn down), 1749, 1750 (garage torn down), 1765, 1815 (significant alterations), 1833, 1842, 1850, 1872, 1884, 1896, 1925, 2060, 2067, 2072, 2084, 2100, 2116 (torn down), 2121, 2133, 2139, 2145, 2146 (pool house torn down), 2154, 2166 (substantially torn down), 2185
Calle Arroyo:	1607 (torn down), 1789, 1817, 1843, 1897
Calle Los Callados	2043, 2079 (torn down), 2093
Campo Pelota:	28 (torn down), 36
Club House:	1700, 1740 (torn down), 1752 (torn down), 1778, 1812
El Centro:	111, 120, 140, 125, 131
El Nido:	1675, 1726 (torn down), 1733 (disrepair, demolition pending)
La Cadena:	1904 (substantially torn down), 1942, 1956 (garage torn down)
Others:	21 Calle Del Casarillo, 1965 Diablo Road, 2070 Casa Nuestra, 2323 Caballo Ranchero

The addition of the Historical Homes and the land use review request by DHPC has created confusion for the County planners and frustration for residents trying to understand the permit process.

II. Proposed Communication Protocols Between the County and DMAC

DMAC, following discussions with the County, is proposing the following communication protocols be established between the Contra Costa County Department of Conservation & Development and DMAC to eliminate the confusion and frustration:

1. All land use, planning matters and services, such as zoning, boundaries, public health, safety and public works impacting the community of Diablo will be communicated to DMAC via email to generalmanager@diablocsd.org. If USPS mailing is required, communication will be sent to DMAC, PO Box 321, Diablo, CA 94528.
2. DMAC has the authority to design/define notification review processes within Diablo, including use of other committees or persons with expertise on particular land use or planning matters. However, DMAC is the only organization authorized to respond to/advise the County on such matters.

III. Recommended Action and Motion

Recommended action is as follows: the DMAC Board adopts the communication protocols listed above and formalizes the procedures in a letter to be sent to the Contra Costa County Department of Conservation & Development with a copy to Alicia Nichols, liaison to Supervisor Diane Burgis.

DMAC's internal review procedures using assistance from the community should be reviewed and clarified separately from communication with the County.
